LAID TO REST.

Remains of the Late Mr.
Charles M. Latham.

The funeral services of the late Mr. Chas. M. Latham were held yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at Grace Episcopal church. The ritualistic service was conducted by Rev. G. C. Abbott and at the grave the ceremonies of the Knights of Pythias order were observed. Deceased was long a member of Evergreen Lodge No. 38.

The active pall bearers were Messrs. F. W. Dabney, L. H. Whitlow, Geo. D. Dalton, J. E. McPherson, Jouett Henry, L. H. Davis, A. W. Wood and John W. McPherson. The honorary pall bearers were Messrs. J. D. Russell, Sr., H. C. Gant, C. F. Jarrett, W. F. Garnett, T. W. Long, H. D. Wallace, Jno. B. Trice and Dr. J. M. Dennis.

A large concourse of friends followed the body to its last resting place in Hopewell Cemetery.

Mr. Latham leaves three children, two daughters and a son, Jno. C. Latham, Jr., who is now a naval cadet at Annapolis from Mississippi.

RAILROAD INDICTED

Daviess County, Ky., Grand Jury Charges Absence of Cupidors.

Owensboro, Ky., Dec. 18.—The Daviess County grand jury returned indictments late yesterday afternoon against the Louisville, Henderson & St. Louis, Illinois Central and Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company for failure to provide cupidores in their coaches. The law on the subject says a cupidor shall be provided for every seat in the coach. This is the first action of the kind that has ever been taken in the matter. The Louisville, Henderson & St. Louis Company was also indicted for failure to maintain a suitable waiting room for the traveling public in the city of Owensboro.

An Appeal.

THAT CONCERN'S EVERY MAN, WOMAN AND CHILD IN THE DARK TOBACCO DISTRICT.

To Whom it May Concern:

There has been a call made for a meeting of the Planters Dark Tobacco Protective Association, to be held in Hopkinsville, Dec. 29, 1904.

Now, our county has not had much information in regard to what the Association has done and proposes to do. I want to urge every one to come out to that meeting. Speakers will be there to explain the situation and give you all the information possible. And I further urge that you do not sell your tobacco before you attend or hear from that meeting. There are men working faithfully for our interest in this matter with a fair chance of success. Our county is said to be behind all the others in the district in organization. This matter is a large undertaking and means hundreds of thousands of dollars to our people, and we should not be too impatient of its progress. Hold your tobacco and help yourselves and friends by doing. Come out to the meeting. R. F. RIVES.

VILLAGE SCENES.

Pretty Operetta Presented By S. K. C. Pupils.

The Operetta, Village Scenes, was most attractively presented at the opera house Tuesday night by pupils of the South Kentucky College. It was handsomely staged, the cast was strong and the music was all that could be desired. The attendance was large and appreciative.

Crawford-Clark.

Mr. M. A. Crawford and Mrs. Mattie Clark, both of this city, were married at the home of the bride, corner Fourth and Brown streets, Tuesday night. Rev. B. F. Hyde performed the ceremony.

The children of the Baptist church will have a Christmas tree Friday night, at the church.

MOAYON ON DECK.

Great Holiday Cut Price Sale the Talk of the Town.

The Moayon Company is in the front rank this week with a great Holiday Sale now on, in which they are cutting and slashing prices all along the line. In furs, cloaks, fine dress goods, tailored suits, clothing and shoes they are offering some startling discounts. In fact, in every line in their big store they are surprising the natives with their cheap prices. Col. Wm. L. Bamberger, the manager, is pursuing his usual policy of waiting until the right moment and then coming out with a broadside that knocks prices into smithereens. The details of his present sale are set forth in the page ad. on the second page of this issue. Don't fail to read it, every word.

Coughing Spell Caused Death.

Harry Duckwell, aged 25 years, choked to death early yesterday morning at his home, in the presence of his wife and child. He contracted a slight cold a few days ago and paid but little attention to it. Yesterday morning he was seized with a fit of coughing which continued for some time. His wife, a physician, sent for help, but before help could arrive another coughing spell came on and Duckwell died from suffocation.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat, Dec. 1, 1901.

BRAVE GENERAL NOGI

THE AREITEE OF THE FATE OF PORT ARTHUR.

A Man of Simple Tastes But a Great Fighter and Organizer—His Conception of a Soldier.

New York.—One day—it was toward the close of the fifth moon of the thirty-ninth year of Meiji (that is to say, 1904 of the year of Christian grace)—Gen. Nogi received a message from his majesty the emperor. It was the same Gen. Nogi who had been sent by the emperor to confer upon Gen. Nagi the highest distinction for the fighting men of Nippon. His majesty appointed him as the commander in chief of our forces besieging Port Arthur, says a Japanese writer in the New York Independent.

At the time the news of the battle of the Nanchan. To Gen. Nogi the report of the Nanchan battle brought the news of the heroic death of his son, Shoton.

The general said: "I am sorry he died so splendidly. It was the greatest honor he could have."

"I am sorry, my son, might be well postponed for a while. A little later on they may be performed in conjunction with those of the other two members of his family—of Hoten, his brother, and of myself."

Gen. Nogi is the type of soldier upon which the ideals of the older days of the samurai would look down with pleasure. Some say he is somewhat out of place in the wakings days of the new century. Simple, with that rugged simplicity of a man who is too great for adjectives, his heart is in somewhat simple ways. He wears the polite uniform of the day, and his friends and foes have styled him a peculiar man. He is peculiar in many things. He is peculiar in his conception of the life of a soldier. In these happy days, when the soldiers of so many countries all over the world are given to the gold showy parade, he has put his conception of the soldier to the following sentences:

"A soldier is a soldier, after all, and after a man becomes a soldier he must be perfectly willing to lead a life that is somewhat different from the life of an ordinary man in society. It is impossible for him to enjoy liberty and wealth such as so many of his fellow-soldiers enjoy. . . . I refer to this point more especially because of a simple fact—namely, that the soldier who would perform his duties with credit on a battlefield must, of necessity, have trained himself to perform all that is expected of him in the days of peace. There ought to be no belligerent or aggressive in his training."

The conqueror of himself in the time of peace must be a man if he would aspire to the honor, with any right, of being a fighting man under the sun-flag."

Unlike so many historic men of fame, who make free gifts of splendid presents, he straightway forgot these beautiful virtues in the doings of their daily life, the general did not stop with mere words. There is a famous story told of him of his love for shojinjoryo. (Now shojinjoryo means the food prepared for priests and monks. It is a special diet, free from flesh.) He was appointed as the commander of the Eleventh division, stationed at Zentsuji, in the province of Sanuki. The division in question was passing through the busy period of organization. Devoted always, first of all, to his duty to the service, the general did not neglect his wife. Once, when he had returned to Tokio, only three servants accompanied him. Not far from Zentsuji there is a modest village called Kinzoji Mura; in the village stands a humble temple called Kinzoji, after which the village is named. The general found a little shrine in the temple which he had never entered, although any monk or anything more pretentious than an "out-of-the-world," as the monk is called in our country—a man absolutely indifferent to the luxuries of this life. There was a young priest at the temple who did the cooking for everyone who stayed over night. The general, however, had no time to go to the temple. Toki, which is simple beyond all the dreams of simplicity, the commander of the Eleventh division sustained his life. For four years he lived upon the simple food of the monk.

How Now Encourages Thrift.

To encourage working people to establish homes of their own, New York has established a loan fund. The interest is 3% and 4% per cent, and gives the borrower 42 years in which to pay the loan. The total cost of the house must not exceed $800, and the area of land must not be more than five acres.

OBSTINATE CASES

Of leucorrhea, excessive flowing, painful periods, prolapses, falling of womb, attended by weak back, bearing-down sensations, ulceration of womb, pain but a specialist's prescription, having as a single aim the cure of diseases.

Reliable dealers recommend "Favorite Prescription." With tricky ones, something else that pays them better, and which you may take as "just as good." Perhaps it is for them; but it can't be for you. Some saving may be made by purchasing our medicine in a druggist's.

If you are convinced that the "Favorite Prescription" is the medicine you need, do not be carried into accepting some other drug, just because it induces you to do so is an insult to your intelligence. Turn your back on the one who offers the drug.

DR. PIERCE'S PLEASANT PELLETS

Cure biliousness, sick and bilious headache, dizziness, costiveness, or constipation of the bowels, loss of appetite, flatulence, gripes, soreness of the belly, belching, "heart-burn," pain and distress after eating, and kindred derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels.

Price 50c. Send for sample.

Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

It is a pleasant medicine, and may be enjoyed good health again. What I suffered with womb disease would not be expensed by the use of Pleasant Pellets. Monthly sickness, headaches, constipation, all run down, and there was nothing left of me but skin and bones. After taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription two of his Compound Pleasant Pellets, I was entirely cured. I always keep them to all my friends. Yours truly,

Mrs. J. E. Pierce, 603 4th Street, Rensselaer, Albany, N. Y.

There is no opium, cocaine or other narcotic in this Favorite Prescription. Neither does it contain alcohol, whisky or other intoxicant.

It often happens that childlessness is due to constipation, which may be the cause of sterility. Many women have found that the vitality and vigor imparted by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription to the womanly organs, has been the one thing needed to make the joy of motherhood.

This famous medicine is not a cure-all. One little "Pellet" is a laxative, two or three are a tonic, three or four are a stimulant and cures the liver, stomach and bowels. As a "dinner pill," to promote digestion, take one each day. To relieve the distress arising from constipation, nothing equals one of these little "Pellets." They're tiny, sugar-coated, anti-bilious granules, scarcely larger than mustard seeds.

Dr. Pierce's "Great Household-Paper" contains "Common Sense Medical Advice," will be sent for the mere cost of mailing; paper-bound for 21 cent stamps; or cloth-bound for 31 cent stamps. It is a grand and useful book. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, 603 Main St., Buffalo, N.Y.

Rheumatism

is one of the constitutional diseases. It manifests itself in local aches, and pains, inflamed joints and stiff muscles, but it cannot be cured by local applications. It requires constitutional treatment acting through the blood, and the best is a course of the great medicine which has permanently cured thousands of cases.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

For testimony of remarkable cures send for Book on Rheumatism, No. 2, C. Hood Co., Lowell, Mass.

Judge McNeilly, of Mayfield, has decided that trade circulars are not "advertising." The Judge may not be technically correct, but he is on a not-truth of the truth. Any advertising outside of legitimate publications is at best but a weak imitation of the real article.

The wholesale poisoning of raftsmen on the Big Sandy, in the mountains, last Friday, is the worst thing of the kind that ever occurred in Kentucky. A jug of wood alcohol was in the charge of a pushboat bound for Pikeville. There were three boats with 17 men in their crews. A boat sank and the alcohol was taken ashore. The men opened the jug, in spite of the poison label, and drank the deadly stuff. Ten men died at once, or have since died, and two more are hopelessly ill.

Three others are missing and their fate is unknown. The whole story is a temperance lecture that ought to affect the liquor business in all Eastern Kentucky.

It Was Tom Garnett.

A typographical error made the Kentuckian say Tuesday that "Mr. J. F. Garnett," of Gasky, had sold his crop of tobacco. This was intended for Mr. J. T. Garnett and not Mr. J. F. Garnett, President of the Planters Bank and Trust Company, whose farm is on the Clarksville pike. The latter gentleman has not sold his crop.

Killed by Dogs.

Dogs played havoc with Mr. J. M. Gayce's fine flock of sheep this week. Seven were killed in the field and three others crippled. He succeeded in shooting one of the dogs.

Dr. Will Carney, of Bracken county, was murdered by Dr. Courtney, his business rival, while begging for his life.

A Fine Display.

Messrs. Forbes Manufacturing Co. are out doing themselves in their Christmas display. They are devoting all the front of their upper store to a display of all those things in cut glass, fine china and bric-a-brac, chafing dishes, toilet sets and carving sets that are so much in vogue as Christmas presents. It is by far the biggest display they have ever gotten up.

CABBAGE SNAKES.*Two of Them Found in a Local Purchase.

Mrs. L. J. Broadbent, who lives on Campbell street, yesterday found two of the much talked of cabbage snakes in a head of cabbage purchased in the local market. They were imbedded in the head and had not injured it so far as could be seen.

How Are Your Corns?

W. W. Gray, the West Seventh street colored barber and chiropodist, would like to remove your corns and bunions. His process is painless and perfectly safe, while his prices are reasonable. He has recently removed a number of very troublesome corns and could furnish hundreds of testimonials as to his claims, if necessary. He makes a specialty of ladies' work. When in need of his services, telephone or call on him.

Mr. J. M. Green, of Dallas, Tex., is here on a visit.

MARRIED HERE.

Trigg County Bride and Christian County Groom.

Miss Daisy Wilson, daughter of Mr. R. H. Wilson, of Gracey, and Mr. Robt. Shelton were married in this city Sunday afternoon, at the residence of the bride's brother, Mr. Thos. Wilson. Rev. C. H. Nash, of the Baptist church, performed the ceremony.

The bride is an attractive and popular young lady, representing one of the most prominent families in Trigg county. The groom is a worthy and popular young farmer, who lives on the Trice farm near this city, which he has leased.

The Kentuckian joins with many friends in congratulations and good wishes.

CARRIERS WILL CALL.

Their Patrons Will be Presented With a Handsome Address.

The KENTUCKIAN's city carrier boys will call upon their patrons Saturday morning with their animal address. The carriers are Athol Bartley on the Southern route and Guy Finn, on the Northern. The address is an appropriate and attractive folder, containing a poem worthy of preservation. It is needless to add that the address is presented in accordance with the old-time custom and that the boys will be more than pleased to receive any contribution that may be tendered by those whom they have so faithfully served throughout the year. Each will wear trousers provided with two pockets—one for the dollars and the other for smaller change. Special arrangements will be made for taking care of bills and bank checks.

Y. M. C. A. Incorporated.

Articles of incorporation of the Y. M. C. A. were filed with the county clerk yesterday. The document was signed by F. J. Brownell, president, and fifteen other directors. Plans have been perfected for the erection of a magnificent building on Ninth street.

Mr. J. M. Green, of Dallas, Tex., is here on a visit.

Our Holiday Line*Is More Complete

This year than ever, embracing all the New Novelties of the Season from the import and domestic markets.

Almost anything you could wish for can be found in our stock, and at prices to suit any purse.

Hopper & Kitchen.*TO OUR FARMER FRIENDS.

Clarksville, Tenn., Nov. 5, 1904.

This crop of tobacco bids fair to be of better quality than the last one, and it is undoubtedly a short crop in quantity, and we wish to go on record as predicting BETTER PRICES than last season. If you will put your tobacco on the open market for sale, either LOOSE or PRIZED, it will go far towards solving the trust proposition. The private sale is mainly what is raising prices. Sell your tobacco where the whole world can have a chance to buy it, and you will undoubtedly realize better prices.

Assort and order your tobacco well and put it on the Loose Floor and we will get you full prices. Liberal advances made on consignments. Five quarters for men and teams within the warehouse.

Thanking you for your patronage, we are,

Your friends,

Kendrick-Runyon Tob. Warehouse Co.

DISTRIBUTING POINT.*Storage Tanks Will Be Erected Here for Gasoline.

Henderson and the freight is about $8 on a 100-gallon drum. As the gasoline will be brought in carload lots under the new arrangement and Hopkinsville made a distributing point, it will be a considerable saving to consumers. Most of the gasoline burned in this section, is used for operating engines. The new storage tanks will be constructed by the first of the year.

OH, "DEAR!"

"Observer" Gives Description of Hunt for Venison.

Herndon, Ky. Dec. 21.—On Friday morning, the 16th, Dr. S. W. Johnston, while bird hunting near his home, about two and a half miles from here, discovered what he thought to be a large deer, with a spread of horns six or eight feet from tip to tip, standing in a clump of trees near him.

The Doctor was so badly frightened that he dropped his gun and broke for his horse, which was hitched close by. After getting some distance from the place where he had seen the deer, he decided that he had better come on to town and get help instead of attempting the hunt himself.

Joe and Chess Dawson, both old, enthusiastic, (in)experienced deer hunters, were the first to be informed of the find, and deciding that the three would be enough, they started immediately for the woods, where the deer had been seen. Of course they must have dogs, so Joe carried his two bob-tailed rat-terriers, "Coffer" and "Dixie John."

As Chess was the oldest member of the company he was appointed captain. He decided it would be best to go by the railroad bridge, he had two small steel traps set at a spring near that, saying that deer were foolish about spring water. Not finding the deer in either of the traps, they then went to the woods. Joe was to do the driving with his dogs. Doctor had a stand on the edge, and the captain, saying he had read in the "Blue-back Webster" that deer were dangerous when cornered, climbed a tree so he could see the deer when the dogs started.

While the Doctor and captain were taking their stands (or climbs) the dogs jumped a small sized cotton tail. Joe fired both barrels of his gun at him, as did the other stands, as it passed them, but the rabbit escaped unharmed.

The doctor said the deer had "shrunken" a great deal, but the captain still maintains that it must have weighed 400 pounds. Maybe things look larger when seen from a height.

"OBSERVER."

While the Doctor and captain were taking their stands (or climbs) the dogs jumped a small sized cotton tail. Joe fired both barrels of his gun at him, as did the other stands, as it passed them, but the rabbit escaped unharmed.

The doctor said the deer had "shrunken" a great deal, but the captain still maintains that it must have weighed 400 pounds. Maybe things look larger when seen from a height.

This college has been established in Evansville, for many years, where it enjoys a large patronage. The same courses of instruction which have proven so successful there, will be introduced in the school here.

Those desiring to prepare themselves for the practical duties of life, can make no mistake in enrolling at the beginning of the term.

Persons living outside the city, are requested to write for any information desired.

END IN SIGHT.

But Few Convalescents Remaining in Detention.

There have been no new smallpox cases this week. There are now 48 convalescents still in detention at Concord hospital, 12 at Gracey and 3 or 4 at Cedar Grove. About half of those at Concord will be released this week. Seven at Gracey will be discharged tomorrow and the rest next week. Dr. Crowe's services have been dispensed with at Gracey and Dr. Austin Bell is no longer on duty. All of Dr. Jackson's helpers have been discharged. After this week there will be only 25 or 30 patients in detention and by January 1 all of the hospital will be closed.

OMSWEE CLUB

Will Give Its Annual Banquet December 31.

The annual banquets of the Omswee Club have come to be one of the most brilliant functions to enliven the holiday season each year. The banquet this time will be held on the evening of December 31, at Hotel Latham. Of the fourteen members of the club, six are away at school and one of those at home will be unable to attend. The other seven with their escorts and a very limited number of visitors will make up the list, covers being laid for about 20 to 24. There will be the usual flow of after-dinner eloquence and the usual spread in Cynth. Whitlow's very best style. The members who will attend are Mrs. Holland, Garnett, Misses Lillian Gary, Bettie Lee Smith, Mary and Jean Goldthwaite, Mildred Hubbard and "Joy" Herndon.

The ticket will be purchased at the Bank of Hopkinsville, and can also be reserved for the entire course with no additional charge.

Lo-Co-Moter Ataxia.

Now in Good Health.

Dr. M. Fenner, Franklin, N. Y.

Dear Sir—After a sickness of more than five years, I was tempted to try your Kidney and Backache Cure. In the mean time I had tried or been under about 20 doctors, care at the beginning of my trouble. It was then I began to take your cure, as time wore on I became worse, so that at last I could not stand on my feet. Then my arms and hands became weak, and I had to use a cane. I could walk a little with the aid of crutches. The Doctors helped me to this point and no further, and for 22 years I have been bedridden.

Then I took in your Kidney and Backache Cure. I am now in good health. Will say, the doctor told me all the time I was suffering from Lo-Co-Moter Ataxia.

I remain yours respectfully,

Congressman-Elect Rives, of Illinois,
Is entitled to a seat in Congress.

Litchfield, Ill.—Following the news of his election a statement was circulated that Congressman-elect Zeno J.
Rives, who will succeed Congressman
Caldwell as representative from the Twenty-first district, could not be seated as he was but 23 years of age, and the House rules required 25 years.
The statement is not true, for the new congressman is 30 years of age, and fully entitled to a seat in congress.
